SUMI-E

Sumi-e Painting & Zen Meditation Workshop

25th to 29th of August 2020

Led by:
Beppe Mokuza Signoritti

Organized by:
The International School of Sumi-e in:
Versailles, France

Sumi-e

Sumi-e is a black ink painting method which originated in China and was introduced to Japan by Zen monks five centuries ago. Simply using a brush, a black ink stick, a stone (suzuri) and a sheet of rice paper, focusing on the here and now, letting the thoughts flow, relaxing body tension, adopting a correct posture and breathing, this way of painting can awaken the student's creativity and sensitivity. While painting you'll become more attentive, feeling in harmony with the surrounding environment, accepting yourself and your limits, being open minded and at last, you'll be in contact with the very source of life that is within yourself.

Students work together in small groups in a naturally still, silent, concentrated atmosphere, in harmony. There is no competition in order to achieve a goal but just patiently working to develop one's sensitivity and one's expressive side. Through sumi-e you can deepen the quality of being smooth and graceful. In this way, a flower, a rock or a bamboo becomes like a natural expression of your body.

Zazen (sitting meditation)

Zen meditation: zazen Za means to sit, zen means meditation, truth. To touch, through correct sitting, the pure, original mind that exists in each of us, often obscured by our thoughts and the emotional storms which perturb us. Regular zazen practice eliminates stress and mental agitation which are the causes of human intolerance and conflict. While sitting, we make intimate contact with the profound spiritual dimension of our existence, respecting all beings.

"If somebody should ask you what true zen is, it's not necessary to explain using words. Instead, demonstrate the aspects of zazen posture. Then, spring breezes will gently coax the marvelous flowers of the plum tree to blossom."

(Daichi Sokei 1290-1366)
